

Writing – Non – Chronological Report

Prior Learning

Write for different purposes.
 Sequence sentences to form short narratives, including both fiction, non-fiction and poetry.
 Use adjectives or topic related words in writing.
 Select adjectives and topic related words from a word mat or working wall to use within writing.

Concepts

Non - Chronological – A non-chronological report is a text which isn't written in time order.

Non – Fiction – writing that is about real events and facts.

Key Vocabulary

Report	A report is a form of writing that examines issues, events, people or places.
Subheadings	A heading given to a piece of writing, informing the reader of what it is about.
Information	Factual information written in sentences to inform the reader.
Pictures	Pictures to add detail.
Caption	A phrase or sentence to tell the reader about the picture.
Fact boxes	Boxes added to give extra or fun facts.

Images, icons and maps.

- Key Facts
- 1) A non-chronological report is a type of non-fiction text that is not written in time order.
  - 2) Non-chronological reports gives us information about topics.
  - 3) They are split into sections so that information is clear and organised.
  - 4) They contain lots of facts.
  - 5) Non-chronological reports do not have to be read in order.