Plant, Grow, Flourish

Newsletter number: 5

Date: 03.10.25

We have had a great week in school, with the highlight being our Harvest service yesterday. Thank you to everyone who was able to join us. The children sang and shared their work beautifully and we were very proud of them all. The donations for the Food Bank will be collected next week, and I am sure that they will make a real difference to those that need them.

As I am sure you are aware, Miss Scofield our Assistant Headteacher is expecting a baby. She will still be with us for a few more weeks, beginning her maternity leave during October half term. Both Mrs Wooldridge and Mrs Golby will be taking on Miss Scofield's role between them for the period of Miss Scofield's maternity leave. Mrs Wooldridge will become the SENDCo and pupil premium lead, whilst Mrs Golby will lead on attendance and behaviour. We will also welcome Miss Goodwin to the teaching team who will job share alongside Mrs Golby in Key Stage One. There is more information about Miss Goodwin on the Key Stage One Dojo page. Miss Goodwin is excited to come into school on Tuesday next week, giving her a chance to get to know the children.

As always, thank you for all your support. Have a lovely weekend.

Spotlight on

The Leamington Hastings behaviour policy

At Leamington Hastings, we have a restorative approach to behaviour, based upon research carried out by Paul Dix.

We have three school rules that encompass everything that we do.

- Ready (to learn)
- Safe (behaviours)
- Respect (for ourselves, for others, for property and the world in which we live)

These rules are underpinned by the routines of:

- Fantastic walking (walking around school with a quiet or silent voice)
- Amazing line ups (standing sensibly and facing the right way in silence)
- Clean corridors and classrooms (items away and on pegs / in drawers)
- Superb sitting (sat cross legged, lips closed, facing the teacher / board and hands in lap, folded or by the side of the child)

Each class has a 'recognition board'. One specific learning behaviour, rule or routine will be the focus of a period of time determined by the class teacher (hour, lesson, morning, afternoon, day or week). The aim is that by the end of the period of time, all children have had their name placed on the board, focusing on teamwork and collaboration.

We have a range of rewards on offer for the children, as can be seen on the rewards page in each newsletter. This is in addition to lots of positive praise taking place throughout every day. The graphic below details the sanctions within our behaviour policy.

During a 30 second conversation, which always takes place in private with the child concerned, the child is helped to recognise the behaviour that needs to change and reminded of the school expectations.

During a restorative conversation, children will be asked the following questions, asking all children involved the same questions. Children are supported through the use of visual aids where this is needed.

- What happened?
- What were you thinking or feeling?
- How are you feeling now?
- Who has been affected by what has happened? In what way have they been affected?
- What can you do differently next time?
- What can you do to make things right?

BOOK OF THE WEEK

Title: The Gingerbread Man

Author: Estelle Corke

Recommended by: Lara

Lara chose the traditional tale of the Gingerbread Man as book of the week.

She enjoys eating gingerbread and likes to lift the flip up flaps. She especially likes the pages where the gingerbread man runs away through meadows and fields.

COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

In collective worship this week we have conserved Harvest, and how we can support those who are less fortunate through the foodbank. We have also considered the story of creation linked to Harvest, and how many Christians believe that God created the world and everything within it.

Mental Health in Schools Team Tips For Wellness

Appreciation

Appreciation is a feeling of thankfulness or an act of recognising something that is important or meaningful to you.

We can appreciate or recognise another person through complementing them and sharing what you like about them. We can say 'thank you' to others when someone is helpful or supportive. This has benefits for both our mental health and for the people around us. We can also appreciate ourselves – you are important and unique! Remember to celebrate when you achieve big and small things and stop to appreciate what you have done.

Learning to appreciate others and ourselves can improve our self-esteem, improve our mood and improve our relationships with others.

Our tips for appreciation:

1. Create a "be proud" board at home or at school where you post your drawings or good deeds.
2. Start a gratitude journal – write or draw things that make you feel proud or happy every day.
3. Give a compliment - think about a person who is important to you and tell them 3 things that you like about them. You could write a letter or a small note to let them know how much you appreciate them. Use these sentence starters to help you:

- I like how you...
- You are...
- Thank you for...
- You make me happy when you...

Makaton video

4. Say 'thank you' – remember to thank other people throughout the day, to show them you appreciate what they do for you. If you have a friend who speaks another language, you could learn to say 'thank you' in the language that they speak. You could also learn to say 'thank you' in Makaton (sign language) too! Have a look at the video above to help you!

5. Self-appreciation - think of something small that you have achieved this week. Pause and take a minute to appreciate what you have done. Which of your positive qualities did you use? Kindness, thoughtfulness, curiosity, creativity?

In Coventry and Warwickshire, for any urgent mental health concerns, contact the RISE Crisis Helpline available 24/7, by calling NHS 111. Alternatively, call 999 or visit A&E in an emergency, for example if medical attention is required.

MHST are available to support you and your school throughout the school year including term time and school holidays.

Please contact your school's Mental Health Lead for information and advice.
